

SAMPLE –Bingo Deposits -Article

(Copyrighted Content – Not for Re-use)

Bingo Deposit Methods

Before you start playing bingo online, you will need to identify the method you will have to use to make payments to the site. Some casinos may not accept deposits made using the payment options of your choice. So the deposit method offered by the site will affect the selection of sites you would play with.

There are many aspects to consider before you decide on the payment method that you should go for. The speed of funds transfer is very important and so is the ease of use. But, by far, the most critical factor that you need to pay special attention to is the safety of online bingo deposit methods. Tried and tested payment options like the ones mentioned below are your best choice when you want to make a deposit in perfect safety.

Flexible Online Payment Options

PayPal is one of the most widely used online payment methods and also one of the longest standing. You can create a web account for yourself with PayPal to send and receive money online. Add a bank account or provide the debit/ credit card details so that funds from these sources are used to pay for online purchases. Most well established online casinos, such as Bet365, 888.com and Betfair, let you make deposits using this safe and easy payment method.

Prepaid Vouchers

Ukash users buy vouchers that can be used to transfer funds to the bingo site directly. This immensely popular payment option offers safe banking at several casinos like Wink bingo, Tasty Bingo, Virgin bingo and many others. Paysafecard is another safe prepaid e-wallet that lets you fund your online gaming account without revealing any sensitive information. SmartLive Bingo, Bingo Day, and All Bingo club are some of the sites accepting these payments. Payments made using Neteller are also reflected instantly in your online casino account so that you can start playing immediately.

Direct Fund Transfer Options

Echeck accounts can be used to directly transfer funds from your bank account for use when playing at online casinos. The only stipulation is that you have an active bank account with enough money in it to cover the Echeck transaction. Check if your bank supports money transfer in this form to gambling sites before you decide this is the right payment method for you. BetUS, Bodog, and BingoWorkz are some of the casinos that accept this payment method.

You can also opt for a Webmoney fund transfer to make deposits to the online bingo site. Setting up your Webmoney account is a quick affair and you can use it to fund your gaming with many popular sites like PartyBingo, Bingo Day and William Hill Bingo.

E-Wallets for International Users

EcoCard is a free e-wallet account for those who want to use checks, cards or fund transfers to withdraw and use their own national currency. Many Europeans use this easy payment option to make deposits when they play online bingo with casinos like Bet365, Bodog, Betsson etc. Clickandbuy is another payment option for those who prefer to use their own national currency for their bingo gaming. Instadebit e-wallet is an international payment option with support for currencies of 27 European countries as well as Canada. BingoHall, BingoDay, Desperate Housewives Bingo and 888 Bingo are some of the popular online casinos accepting this mode of payment.

A look at the online casino's webpage should tell you which bingo deposit methods are accepted there. Check this important aspect before you sign up with any online bingo site.